BOARD MEMBER COMMENTS

Board member Durazo mentioned that the Distinguished Artists' event took place and Artists Monica Ketchum and Elizabeth M. Ibarra were honored. John Leo and Natalie Lozano provided entertainment. On a different note, she provided a definition of what Cultural Arts means. Board member Alvarado read the definition aloud. The definition reads:

"The arts are a vast subdivision of culture, composed of many creative endeavors and disciplines. The arts encompasses visual arts, literary arts and the performing arts – music, theatre, dance, spoken word and film, among others. Art, in its broadest meaning, is the expression of creativity or imagination".

The definition narrows down what type of activities (those that include creativity and imagination) can be brought to the Cultural Arts Center. This should help distinguish between what an art form is from a discipline or sport related that is not creative or imaginative therefore not cultural arts. She was unable to attend last meeting, but this definition should help when considering future classes/events held at the Carmen Durazo Cultural Arts Center.

Natalia Lozano launched her new CD. A date is being worked on to honor her as a distinguished artist and a concert might be offered.

Board member Durazo mentioned that she attended this year's Robert Rules of Order training for all commissioners. She was very confused because she attended last year's Ethics and Robert Rules of Order training, so she believed that she did not have to attend this time. She thanked Mayor Pro-Tem Romero calling her to remind her that she needed to attend this training as well since it was different from last year. She wanted a clear definition of mandatory since they were threatened that they were going to be removed from the commission and as far as she knows nobody was dropped. For those that were not able to make it, what is going to happen.

ACTING CITY LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

Mrs. Legaspi reported that the Library had its annual Pajama Party with over 170 people in attendance. Families had a good time together and every child took a book home.

The Libraries on the Spectrum new program will be on February 21st at 6:00 pm. It will include social story hour, crafts, sensory and physical activities. This new program is aimed at families with children on the autism spectrum.

Mrs. Legaspi extended an invitation to the Commission to attend Coffee with a Cop on February 27th. Starbucks is sponsoring and the Calexico Police Department will be doing a presentation on vaping and some other information to the public. Lastly, the Reference Librarian position has been advertised.

Today we honor Sergio Grayton with this tribute in appreciation for his art and his work for the City of Calexico.

Sergio, "Queco" for many persons, "Choco" for others, was a passionate man, who lived for the passion of Art. He was passionate, particularly about drawing and painting in its many forms, since he was a child.

My mother used to tell me to take care of "Queco" because he wanted to play with mud to form mud toys outside the house, and I had to to do it. Since this time he began to work with art.

He was born in Mexicali, Mexico, on June 13 of 1958. He attended elementary school, where he continued developing his art potential, especially his drawing. His teacher used to say that all he wanted to do was his sketches of monsters and other type of characters.

The family immigrated to the United States, to Brawley to be precised, and he was more concentrated in his drawing, especially when he began attending high school. There he began working really hard to develop his artistic skills. He continued to develop his potential of art at the Art Instruction Institute through correspondence in 1977. "Chuco" was a local product as far as his education was concerned.

Chuco was an exception and compassionate friend. He was respectful and always had the responsibility to contribute to every aspect of his work demonstrating a strong effort to do it in an efficient manner.

After high school, he attended Imperial Valley College where he received his Associate of Arts degree in 1981. Subsequently, he continued to San Diego State University at Calexico Campus, receiving his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1985. He ~~married~~ married Ms. Ignacia Davila after graduating from SDSU.

He volunteered his time in the city of Calexico Arts Commision. He was responsible for coordinating international art exhibits at the Calexico Cultural Art Center. He had to structure the overal supervision of setting up the art exhibitions with many artists from both sides of the border, San Diego and Los Angeles. He made certain that the artists were properly informed about when to deliver their art work and when to remove it. This job was best described by the term doing it for the LOVE OF THE ARTS.

Sergio left us a substantial pieces of art work that include a drawing and painting collection to be recognized and admired.

Thank you, Carnalito y ¡qué Dios te bendiga!

Kasey Scott~Brown
Photographer ~ Artist
YESAK.Galleries.com
Facebook YESAK Galleries Pet Creations

Since high school, (class of '77) Kasey has had a camera close by and her thoughts and hands are always busy creating something.

Kasey often wishes that she could remember who handed her that first camera, an Olympus OM1. If she could, she would thank them for opening her heart, mind and imagination to a lifetime of creating art. Not only photography, but mixed media canvas pieces, a sketch here and there, pet urns, digital manipulation of a photo and rock art. If that person, from high school, would come forward she would love to share with them what it is they started with that simple gift.

Born and raised on Preston Drive in Calexico, the youngest of three. Kasey was anywhere but home. Hanging out at one friends or another, knowing full well that she could just "walk in" and stay, often eat and be reprimanded if needed, as long as she was in HER front yard, "when the street lights came on".

In high school when that infamous camera appeared, Kasey was lucky enough that her dad turned the 'boys" room into her own private darkroom.. Spending hours and hours running back and forth from the darkroom to the bathroom to see what was developing.

Kasey has photographed professional tennis, celebrities, the beauty of foreign country and it's people, beloved pets, weddings, and even funerals. It's her way to preserve a moment in time that the mind often forgets. A photograph or piece of art can evoke emotions and memories from events long gone.

The current focus of Kaseys work is photography and digital computer manipulation. Subjects range from city and desert landscapes, pets, cocktails and sometimes people. Her work has been featured in Inland Empire Magazine, Pet Companion Magazine, pet stores, and local galleries, the San Diego Museum of Photographic Arts on a fine bottle of Temecula port wine, called GUAPO and ARCHIE. Most recently Kaseys show "Cuba on Canvas" was on exhibit at the Carmen Durazo Cultural Arts Center with a portion of sales proceeds going to Calexico Arts Council.

It all started with the gift of a camera

Kasey currently resides in Palm Springs with her wife Read.
