Proposed Ordinance

The proposed Ordinance amends Chapter 2.19 Eligibility and Procedures for Commissions, Boards and Committees, Chapter 2.20 Personnel Commission, Chapter 2.23 2010 General Tax Citizen Oversight Advisory Committee, Chapter 2.26 Library Board of Trustees, Chapter 2.27 Arts and Historical Commission, Chapter 2.28 Planning Commission, Chapter 2.32 Parks, Recreation, Beautification, and Senior Services Commission, and Chapter 2.56 Community Police Advisory Commission.

1) Chapter 2.19 Eligibility and Procedures for Commissions, Boards and Committees

Chapter 2.19 provides general guidance for all city commissions, boards, and committees subject to a few exceptions. A summary of the proposed amendments is as follows:

- If a City Council member fails to appoint a commissioner, the City Council-appointed commissioner's term will continue for the duration of term of office of the City Council member who failed to make the appointment.
- When the term of a commissioner appointed by the majority vote of the City Council expires or the commission's seat becomes vacant, the original Council Member who failed to appoint that commissioner shall regain the ability to make an appointment for that particular commission.
- Planning Commissioners and Community Police Advisory Commissioners will be selected by an application, interview, and appointment process that will be adopted by City Council resolution.
- For five member committees, each Council Member will appoint a commissioner. For seven member committees, each Council Member will appoint a commissioner and the remaining two members will be appointed by majority vote of the City Council for a two year term.
- Department Heads assigned to committees will notify the City Clerk when vacancies arise.
- Department staff will report attendance to the City Clerk.
- Officers will include a chairperson and vice-chair person; no secretary.
- Meetings will occur quarterly (January, April, July, October), except for the Planning Commission, which will meet twice a month.
- Special meetings may be called by the City Manager or Department Head, except the Planning Commission chair may call special meetings of the Planning Commission.

- All Agenda items must be filed with the commission Department Director as provided for in the “Commission, Board and Committee Agenda Policy” that was recently adopted by the City Council.
- The order of each agenda shall include a call to order, pledge of allegiance, approval of agenda, presentations, public comments, consent calendar, discussion and potential action items, public hearings (Planning Commission only), information items, commissioner comments, Department Director’s report, adjournment.

2) Chapter 2.20 Personnel Commission

The personnel commission hears appeals of city personnel regarding discipline, demotion or dismissal. The proposed amendment to this chapter would require a commission chairperson and vice chairperson to be elected during the month of January.

3) Chapter 2.23 2010 General Tax Citizen Oversight Advisory Committee

The 2010 General Tax Citizen Oversight Advisory Committee oversees, recommends and reports to the City Council on the expenditure of the proceeds of the Measure H General Fund Transactions and Use Tax. The proposed amendments conform to Chapter 2.19 and other commission chapters by establishing two officers— chairperson and vice chairperson, confirm the committee’s ability to create bylaws for conduct of business, and establish quarterly meetings.

4) Chapter 2.26 Library Board of Trustees

The Library Board of Trustees was formed to make recommendations to City Council regarding the Camarena Memorial Library and supports the community’s educational, recreational, informational, and cultural needs to encourage lifelong learning and the pursuit of knowledge. The proposed amendments are intended to ensure conformance with Chapter 2.19, better clarify the Board’s role, and define its meeting procedures.

5) Chapter 2.27 Arts and Historical Commission

The Arts and Historical Commission was formed to advise staff and the City Council regarding arts and history programs, issues, funding, and events. In its advisory role, the Commission supports arts and history in the City and makes recommendations to the City Council for programing, funding, and other arts/historical-related issues. The proposed amendments are intended to ensure conformance with Chapter 2.19 and better define the responsibilities of the Commission. Some powers and duties have been revised.

6) Chapter 2.28 Planning Commission

The Planning Commission makes land use decisions that are consistent with the policies and plans formally adopted by the City Council. The proposed amendments refer to Chapter 2.19 for general commission rules; however, the Planning Commission will meet twice a month and in January of each year will elect a Chairperson and Vice Chairperson. With regards to street naming, the Planning Commission will retain the ability to review street name changes at the request of the City Council. New streets are typically named as part of development projects.

7) Chapter 2.32 Parks, Recreation, Beautification, and Senior Services Commission

The Parks, Recreation, Beautification, and Senior Services Commission's purpose is to advise the City Council regarding recreation facilities/programs, City beautification, senior services, and perform community outreach. The proposed amendments clarify the Commission's role as an advisory body that can be tasked with action items by the City Council. The Commission will provide recommendations, but will not perform services that are typically handled by other City departments, such as Code Enforcement. Some powers and duties have been revised.

8) Chapter 2.56 Community Police Advisory Commission

This Community Police Advisory Commission provides a forum for the receipt of citizen complaints brought by individuals against the police department or any of its officers and provides recommendations to the police department designed to improve relations with the community. The proposed amendments also bring this chapter in line with Chapter 2.19, establish this commission as a liaison between residents and the police department rather than an investigatory body, require quarterly meetings, and better define commission responsibilities. The proposed amendments also expand the commission from five to seven members.

Fiscal Impact:

Adoption of the ordinance is not expected to have a fiscal impact.
