SUBJECT: Contract for Administrative Law Judge Services from the State of California Office of Administrative Hearings / Department of General Services

=====

Recommendation:

Approval of the Administrative Law Judge services contract with the State of California Office of Administrative Hearings / Department of General Services.

Background:

Pursuant to an agreement entered into between the City of Calexico and the Calexico Police Officers Association in 2012, the parties agreed that discipline appeals would be heard by an administrative law judge rather than the personnel commission. With respect to a police officer discipline appeal, the City and the former officer have agreed to have the discipline appeal heard by an administrative law judge from the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH).

Discussion:

OAH hearing services are available by contract to any county or local public entity (local agencies) pursuant to Government Code section 27727. OAH currently conducts a variety of proceedings for local agencies, including, but not limited to, personnel and disciplinary hearings, labor arbitrations, and public permit citation and revocation appeals. Prior to receiving services from OAH, local agencies must have a current contract for services in place with OAH. The City of Calexico does not currently have a contract for services in place with OAH.

Once the contract has been executed by the City and OAH, the City can then schedule the discipline appeal hearing. Government Code section 11370.4 requires that all OAH costs be recovered from the agencies served. Fees typically include a filing fee for each case filed, an hourly rate for Administrative Law Judge services, and costs for requested interpreters, court reporters or electronic recordings.

Fiscal Impact:

The exact amount is unknown. The fiscal impact will depend upon the length of the appeal hearing and the time the administrative law judge spends preparing the appeal decision. The administrative law judge hourly rate is $229.00 per hour. A reasonable estimate is $25,000 to $35,000 for services provided by OAH for the administrative discipline appeal.

SCOPE OF WORK

1. Upon request of the City of Calexico (hereinafter referred to as "Local Agency"), Department of General Services, Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) agrees to furnish the services of Administrative Law Judges (ALJs) to the Local Agency, for the purpose of conducting hearings pursuant to Government Code section 27727 when required personnel are available by OAH. The assignment of ALJs for hearings will be at the discretion of the Director and/or Presiding Administrative Law Judges, who may elect to hear the matter themselves.

The Local Agency agrees to provide OAH a written request for hearing with all pleadings, documents, papers, or other materials that have been provided to the other party. The Local Agency agrees to provide OAH copies of all applicable laws and ordinances governing the hearing. The Local Agency agrees that OAH will not be able to schedule a hearing or mediation until these materials are provided.

The Local Agency agrees to inform OAH if the hearing is to be recorded or if a court reporter is required. The Local Agency agrees to inform OAH 30 days prior to the hearing if any accommodations or interpreters are required.

In consideration of the performance of such services by OAH, the Local Agency agrees to pay to OAH the cost of rendering such services at the rate established at the time the services are rendered. In the event a calendared case is taken off calendar, or needs to be re-calendared, other than by OAH, and OAH is unable to schedule the ALJ for another case, the Local Agency agrees to pay OAH for the original hearing time or until the ALJ is assigned to another case, whichever occurs first. Every effort will be made to promptly reassign the scheduled ALJ in the event a calendared matter is cancelled, taken off calendar, settled, re-calendared or continued.

The costs of OAH's services include filing fees, ALJ hourly rates, any reasonable costs related to any requested accommodations, and translator/interpreter fees as required. All costs associated with providing a record of the hearing (reporter/transcription, etc.) shall be billed directly to the Local Agency. ALJ hourly rates and filing fees charged by OAH will be the rates set forth in the Department of General Services' Price Book at the time the services are rendered. Rates for court reporters will be the current contract rates at the time the services are rendered, which vary by geographical location. Fees for translator/interpreters and transcription services will be based on current contract rates at the time the services are rendered. All rates are subject to change annually.

The Local Agency further agrees to be responsible for the full costs of any service provided by OAH regardless of any agreement the Local Agency may have with a third party.

The contract is effective upon approval and execution of all signatures to this contract. The term of this contract is five years from the effective date of the contract and may be extended by amendment.
